IN ORANGEBURG BEGINNING JUNE 21 AND THROUGH THE 23RD

Chief Jackson of the local fire department is in receipt of a letter relative to the Annual Firemen's tourns ment which is to be held in Orange-burg June 20, 21, 22. The letter urges that Anderson he represented and states that efforts will be made to make this, the twelfth convention, the best ever held in the state.

The letter is in part as follows: An attractive prize list for the tournament has been generously of fered by our Orangeburg hosts; and quite naturally the attendance ought to be arge. Our Orangeburg liftends are enthusiastic and will certainly make every team and Meltor glad they attended.

Every department is expected to notify Secretary Hood names of their delegates to the concention at least ten days previous to the convention. This is important.

We would also earnestly request you to arrange to be represented either by delegates to the convention, by picked delegates to participate in the tournament, or by buth, if you can possible do so.

can possibly do so.

We come together, once a year to discuss topics of profound interest to firemen, or to ask questions or others: to devise plans for better protection;

to determine plans to determine plans to determine the best and seriest way to guard the Business places and homes of our fellow citizens from that dread element—fire.

"Tanlac Is Better Than All Other Medicine's in Columbia," She Says

By far the most remarkable Columbia case which has come to the attention of the Tanlac representative is that of Mrs. F. A. Marsh of 18 Moore's Ave., Columbia, and the re-lief the master medicine gave her may be considered truly wonderful.

"Tanlar is better than all the other medicines in Columbia", said Mys. Marsh. "I suffered from a little of everything, it seemed, and from a great deal of some others. I had no appetite and could not even 'lrink sweet milk. I drank some sweet milk several days before I began taking Tanlac and I almost died with the awful spell of indigestion with gave awful spell of indigestion wit gave ine:

"I had an awful hurting in my limbs, which was variously said to be rhoumatism and paralysis coming on. I hurt'so I could neither stay in bed or in chair. I wanted to be moving around, so I could in a way forget the pain, but I could not walk. I would lay back in a chair and feel so terribly that I would alle. My lest felt as if they would freeze no matter how much cover I would have on them, or how hot was the fire. My circulation was bad, and I had g lot of trouble with my heart. Glany a night I felt as if I would fabt live to see day again, but now, I can sleep as well as any-body, thanks to Tanlac for I do not suffer those pains now.

"I had read and heard that Tanlac would do me good so I bought it.

lac would do me good so I bought it. I am so glad to tell you what Tablac has done for me, and it certainly had done me a great deal. It seems to me that Tablac has been blessed. It is better than all the other medicines in Columbia, I think, I am u and in Columbia, I filish, I am I and about Low, and do a large pure of my housework and I feel much haiter is every way, so great has been the improvement Taslac made in my could liqu. If Taulac has not robbed the grave it certainly has robbed the invalid's chair, in my case.
